HIGH SCHOOL EQUIVALENCY GED® TEST PREPARATION

The GED-preparation program helps prepare individuals to take the GED® test and obtain a high school equivalency diploma. It focuses on building literacy skills necessary to be successful employees, citizens, and family members.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE?

Students must be 16* years of age or older, must not have a recognized high school diploma, and must show proof of citizenship or lawful presence:

- US birth certificate, passport or naturalization document
- Valid Permanent Resident card, temporary card, or passport stamped "Temporary I-551"
- I-94 or USCIS approval letter stamped Asylum Granted, Paroled, or Refugee
- Valid visa or passport stamp
- I-797C—USCIS approval letter showing application to apply or change status
- Current Employment Authorization Card

B1/B2 Tourist visas and F1 International Student visas are not eligible for this program.

*Students under age 18 must provide documentation showing they are withdrawn from K-12 schools.

WHERE DO I START?

Request more information by scanning the QR code or contacting us by email.

Ready to apply?

- Go to apply.fscj.edu.
- Create an account or log in.
- Select Adult Education: ESOL, GED, ASB.
- Select SPRING 2027.
- Select GED Preparation: High School Equivalency Program.

After you receive your FSCJ Student ID number, our staff will assist you in scheduling a CASAS GOALS placement test to determine your starting level.

Based on your scores, you might need to start in the Adult Basic Education (ABE) program to build foundational skills that are typically taught in elementary and middle school.
