

Residency for Tuition Purposes Documentation Options

The documents must be issued or begin 12 months before the term starts to be used to establish Florida residency for tuition purposes.

Students must provide two documents and one must come from Tier A.

Tier A:

- Florida State driver's license or Florida state identification card
- Florida vehicle registration/license plate
- Florida voter's registration number
- Proof of permanent home in Florida occupied as your primary residence for the past 12 months
- Proof of a homestead exemption in Florida
- Proof of permanent full-time employment in Florida for at least 30 hours per week for 12 months
- Official transcripts from a Florida high school (2 or more years) if a high school diploma or GED® was earned in Florida within the last 12 months

Tier B:

- Rental or lease agreement and proof of 12 consecutive months of payments
- Utility bills and proof of payment for 12 consecutive months
- Benefit history from a Florida agency or public assistance program reflecting 12 months of payments
- Official state, federal or court document evidencing legal ties to Florida
- Florida incorporation or establishment of a business
- Declaration of Domicile filed at least 12 months ago
- Florida professional or occupational license
- Document evidencing family ties in Florida
- Proof of membership in a Florida-based charitable or professional organization