Purpose

The purpose of this procedure is to establish the responsibilities of members of the College President's Cabinet relating to working for compensation with any other entity outside the scope of their primary employment with the College.

Procedure

- A. If a Cabinet member is offered secondary employment outside the scope of their employment with the College, including paid consulting, the Cabinet member shall consult with the College President before agreeing to accept the offer.
- B. If such an offer is determined to not represent a conflict of interest and is approved by the College President, the Cabinet member must request a leave of absence for the time used for the secondary employment obligations unless the activities of the secondary employment engagement can be documented to take place during hours other than those shown on the individual approved College work schedule.
- C. In no case may a Cabinet member use the resources of the College to support activities related to secondary employment with other entities.
