Purpose

The purpose of this procedure is to outline the process for conducting performance reviews for College employees and to provide the schedule for conducting such performance reviews. The Chief Human Resource Officer (CHRO) shall be responsible for designating the tool utilized for performance reviews.

Procedure

A. Employee performance reviews can be utilized to:

1. Provide an opportunity for employees to discuss their performance and to plan for improvements expected in a manner that will encourage and support their professional growth and development as College employees.
2. Establish goals or performance standards to be followed and assessed on the next review.
3. Determine the employee’s eligibility for salary increases and performance-based awards.
4. Serve as the basis for taking corrective or disciplinary action against the employee.
5. Assist in determining the employee’s potential for continued employment.

B. The performance of all full-time and regular part-time Administrative, Professional and Career employees shall be evaluated annually. The performance of Administrative, Professional and Career are scheduled as follows:

Administrative	Annual Review – June 15
Professional & Career	Semi-Annual Review – June 15 & December 15

C. The performance of adjunct instructors, teaching in programs overseen by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC), who have never been employed by the College in an adjunct role will be evaluated prior to the end of their first teaching term and annually thereafter, whenever employed.

1. If an employee does not teach at least one (1) credit course or the equivalent fifteen (15) contact hours during a review cycle, a review is not required.

D. Each supervisor will schedule an appointment with each assigned employee to conduct the performance review.

E. No changes will be made after the review meeting has been conducted and the employee has signed the review.
