

The History and Heritage Committee will be hosting a summer-long Canvas-based peer support group titled "Diverse Student Forum" for students from diverse backgrounds as they continue to work through COVID-19 challenges, including changes in course modalities.

Students will have the opportunity for inclusive peer connection as well as identify topics for which they would like to seek expert knowledge during future sessions.

All students are welcome, so please feel free to share this information broadly with them.

The conversations will occur on Thursdays from 3:30-4:30 p.m. via Canvas Conferences, starting on Thursday, May 21, 2020, from 3:30 to 4:30 p.m. with a focus on "Connecting Diverse Students During COVID-19."

To join the Life@FSCJ Canvas course (27423), students will

- 1. Visit canvas.fscj.edu;
- 2. Log in to Canvas with their FSCJ ID and password;
- 3. Click the "+Join this Course" link on the top right-hand corner of the screen;
- 4. Click the blue "Enroll in Course" link on the top right-hand corner of the screen;
- 5. Click the blue "Go to the Course" link on the top right-hand corner of the screen.

For deaf and hard-of-hearing FSCJ students who would like to participate in the live events, please join the Canvas Conference through the Video Relay Service while watching the live Canvas Conference. To join by phone, please call the number and use the conference pin listed in the Canvas Conference.

Thank you so much for your interest and participation. I look forward to working with you to help better serve our students.
