Legislative Update - Weeks 3 & 4

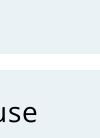

Spotlight on Nursing Education This Legislative Session

Nursing education continues to be a major focus of the Legislature, as it has been in recent sessions. This year, two bills are aimed at expanding the LINE (Linking Industry to Nursing Education) matching grant program. The LINE grant allows state universities, state colleges, and independent colleges with qualifying nursing programs to receive state matching funds for contributions and philanthropic support provided by local healthcare partners.

Companion legislation has been filed by Senator Tracie Davis, a member of the Duval Delegation, and Representative Erika Booth of Central Florida to broaden access to LINE grant funding for nursing programs statewide. Senate Bill 1246 and House Bill 1325 were both heard and passed in committees during weeks three and four of session.

As the bills have moved through their respective chambers, some differences have emerged. Both proposals would expand the program to allow non-healthcare partner donations and grants to qualify as matching funds for state dollars. The Senate version goes further by expanding eligibility beyond nursing to include broader allied health workforce needs, based on local demand. The House version currently limits LINE to nursing programs but would allow non-monetary, in-kind contributions to count toward the required match, an option not included in the Senate bill. As the legislation continues to advance, additional amendments are anticipated to align the two versions.
