Personal Records Exempt from Public Disclosure

As provided by s. 119.071, Florida Statutes, certain information maintained by state agencies is exempt from public disclosure, and is therefore deemed confidential. This includes social security numbers, medical and financial information. Accordingly, the Florida Division of Workers' Compensation protects the social security numbers, medical and financial information of injured workers obtained in the performance of its statutory responsibilities.

However, s.119.071(4) (d), Florida Statutes, additionally provides for the exemption of home addresses and telephone numbers from public disclosure for certain occupational groups as listed below. Note: Home addresses and telephone numbers of spouses and children of individuals who are covered by these occupational groups are also exempt from public disclosure.

Please complete this form if you would like to be EXEMPT from Public Record Disclosure:
