

Adjunct Hiring Report

Hiring administrators and their designated employees will now receive a monthly adjunct instructor job posting report the first week of each month. This report will provide applicant details of those who applied to specific academic school job postings.

This report provides easy access to review the applicant's name, applicant ID number and the desired discipline(s) the applicant is interested and qualified to teach. Now as excel spreadsheet, hiring administrators and their designated employees have the ability to pull data specific to departmental needs.

The monthly report will look like this:

	A	B	C
1	School of Tech & Ind Answers
