

Class Attribute Search

To streamline your class search results, we've organized classes within myFSCJ into different categories. Now you can filter your search by different "Attributes," including features like where classes are offered, the types of books and learning materials required, special designations and more.

Attribute	Description
Access Class	In the FSCJ ACCESS program, the costs of digital learning materials are included in tuition. Students receive the guaranteed lowest price for the materials, which are made available in Canvas.
Elective	Associate in Arts (A.A.) Elective classes may fulfill requirements for a planned transfer major. Students should meet with an advisor to discuss which A.A. electives are best for their intended major.
Global Learning	Global Learning emphasizes international awareness, appreciation for cultural diversity, language/communication awareness and/or cultural engagement. These classes count toward the Global Scholars Distinction Program.
Honors	Honors Only classes contain an IDH (Interdisciplinary Honors) prefix. To enroll, students must be admitted to the Honors Program, which provides Associate in Arts (A.A.) students with opportunities for academic excellence, service-learning, leadership development and fellowship.
	Honors Option classes offer general education or A.A. elective credit with honors content and instruction. To enroll, students must be admitted to the Honors Program or receive a faculty recommendation.
No Textbook Purchase Required	These classes do not require the purchase of a textbook, e-book, digital materials or an online homework platform. Please note: Optional resources and required supplies may be necessary (examples include calculators, lab materials, etc.)
Service Learning	Service Learning integrates required community service activities with instruction to enrich the learning experience and develop civic responsibility.
Weekend College	These classes are offered at Deerwood Center during the weekend as part of the Weekend College program. The program is set to expand to additional locations in the future.
