Symphonic Band	Students that play brass, woodwind, and percussion instruments, including piano can perform with the FSCJ Symphonic Band. Symphonic Band members will have the opportunity to study under accomplished professional faculty in outstanding practice and performance facilities at the College's Wilson Center for the Arts. In addition, students may also have the opportunity to perform locally as well as travel with the Symphonic Band which has been nationally recognized for excellence. Talent Scholarships are available.	Dr. Paul Weikle	PWEIKLE@fscj.edu; getinvolved@fscj.edu	South Campus | FSCJ Band Room M-2115	Arts, Humanities, Communication and Design
The Experience Arts & Literature Magazine	The Experience Arts and Literature magazine is the college's 58-year-old student-driven magazine. The organization is a co-curricular activity that supports student editors (on Tuition Waiver) and student artists and writers to conceive of a theme, promote student submissions for, curate, design, conduct proofreading, layout, and print an annual issue. It's a competitive magazine that upholds the standards of the college and FCSPA statewide competition. Students encourage readership, submissions, and host release party and "how to" submission sessions for fellow students college-wide.
